FEBRUARY 16, 2024: Port Hope, ON – The Capitol Theatre Port Hope today shared a casting and tour announcement for its first Billboard in Concert of the year – a tribute to the greatest songs of 1973, with hits from Elton John, Carly Simon, Paul Simon, Roberta Flack, Marvin Gaye, Steely Dan, and more. Billboard in Concert: 1973 is performed live by Jeff Biggar, Michelle Bouey, Nathan Carroll, The Colton Sisters, and Kaylee Harwood. Collaboratively created by local and regional artists, these unique concerts from the Capitol Theatre celebrate the top billboard hits of a given year. Conceived by Jeff Newberry and Rob Kempson, each show features hits that audiences know and love.

“We are so thrilled to launch our newly-expanded Billboard in Concert series with some of the biggest hits from 1973,” says Artistic Director Rob Kempson. “1973 was a dynamic and diverse year in music and we are excited to share those tunes with a cast of local artists, big Canadian musical theatre stars, and Capitol Theatre favourites. You simply can’t miss your opportunity to catch this locally-made show either on the Capitol stage or during our special performance in Bancroft with Tweed & Company Theatre.”
